LONDON, Sept. 2.

THERE are Letters from Genoa which inform us, that the Inhabitants of the Southern Province of France are very restless and uneasy, for which they assign various Reasons. People in Circumstances, who have either Money or Lands well improved to lose, are exceedingly apprehensive of an Invasion by the King of Sardinia, who might in that Case be tempted to indemnify, at their Expence, himself and his Subjects in Savoy, for the Losses sustained, without the least Cause, and, on the Part of France, without War declared, since the Commencement of the present War. The Protestants are very justly uneasy at the continual Risques they run, and Severities to which they are exposed whenever the Papists are, or suppose themselves in Danger; and such as have any Concerns in Manufactures, are at their Wits End, on account of the total Stagnation of Trade. This Situation of Things has occasioned some very wealthy Families, under various Pretences, to quit the Kingdom.

for

From the French Camp before Namure, Sept. 19

On the 16th the Garison made a Sally with 800 Grenadiers, who at first created some Confusion, but were at last repulsed, tho' not without Loss. It was perceived that our new Batteries incommoded the Besieged very much. The 17th we pushed our Trenches within eight Rods of Coehorn. On the 18th we continued our Bombardment with great Fury and Success, and at the Fall of Night Count Clermont gave Orders for attacking the Horn work before the Gate of St. Nicholas, by 12 Companies of Grenadiers sustained by the like Detachment, who carried it Sword in Hand, tho' with considerable Loss. On the 19th, Count Lowendahl summoned the Commandant of Fort Coehorn, who was no longer in a Condition to defend that Place: About Noon the Besieged hung out a White Flag; the Capitulation is just settled, the Garison are to retire into the Castle, and we have detached 20 Battalions, and 35 Squadrons to join M. Saxe

CHARLES-TOWN, December 15.

On Tuesday last arrived here in 8 Days from the Havanna, the Sloop Mary of this Port, Peter Bostock Master, who was sent thither as a Flag of Truce, and has brought 16 English Prisoners from thence, among which are, Richard White late Master of the Ship Loyal Catherine, from London for this Port, who was taken in July last, about 60 Leagues to the Eastward of this Bar, by the famous Francisco Lorenzo, commonly known by the Name of Pounche; and Mr. Hyrne, late a Purser in his Majesty's Fleet at Jamaica, who was taken in his Passage Homeward to command one of his Majesty's Ships.

Capt. Bostock informs us, that there were lately taken and carried into the Havanna, a Ship from Jamaica for London, one Dollison Master, a Snow from Barbados, of and for Philadelphia, the Master's Name unknown, and a Sloop from New York for Georgia, one Shoat Master. That Don Pedro de Garaycochea's Ship was put in at the South side of the Island, in great Distress, and had lost all its Masts; that he had taken 4 English Vessels in his last Cruize, of which only the Philadelphia Snow afore mentioned was arriv'd; and that the Brigt. his Concert was suppos'd to be lost. That Pinnelo's Sloop was out on a Cruize; and that he has now the Command of the two Privateer Xebeques that belong to the Havanna, which may be expected on this Coast very soon. That there had arisen a great Difference between the new Vice Roy of Mexico, the Governor of the Havanna, the Admiral, and the Royal Guipuscoa Company, which had occasioned the greatest Confusion, the Imprisonment of several of the most considerable Persons on that Island, and the Seizure of the following English Vessels trading there, viz. the Schooner Charming Nelly, Capt. Cox, and the Sloop Industry, Capt. Williams, both of this Port; a Sloop from New York, Capt. Warton; a Sloop from Rhode Island, Capt. Clark; and one from Jamaica, Capt. Bedlow. That the Cruizer Privateer of Philadelphia, lately taken by the Xabeques, and afterwards fitted out from the Havanna with another Snow, was drove ashore at Cape Florida and beat to Pieces. That on the 6th of November, there sail'd for Spain, a French 36 Gun Ship and several other Vessels, with Treasure; And that Admiral Spinola with 5 Men of War of 60 and 70 Guns, having on board 42 Millions registe'r'd Pieces of Eight, and about 21 Millions unregister'd, had also sail'd for Spain, but apprehending bad Weather, after being 5 Days at Sea, he put back; and 'twas thought he would put to Sea again very early in the Spring.

A Swedish Ship of 300 Tons, from Jamaica for London, is put into Frederica, having sprung a Leak.

The Success Frigate, Capt. Thompson, with about 50 Recruits for General Oglethorpe's Regiments at Frederica, is safely arrived there; he was attack'd by a Privateer in his Passage, but obliged her to run away.

We hear that Capt. Eglestone's Snow is gone towards Cape-Fear, and that it was a Sloop from Georgia that boarded her off Ratan, and not an Enemy's Vessel; when she was spoke with they had but 10 Gallons of Water on board.

Thomas Innys, Esq; is the present Commander of his Majesty's Ship Aldborough, and not Capt. Everitt as was said in our last.
